FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ivanhoé Cambridge and Callahan Capital Properties acquire 40% interest in 515 North State office property in Chicago

Addition of River North property expands Downtown Chicago platform to 2.1 million square feet

New York City, New York, and Montreal, Quebec, Canada, March 30, 2015 – Ivanhoé Cambridge and its partner, Callahan Capital Properties, announced today the acquisition of a 40% interest in 515 North State, a LEED® Gold office property in Chicago for approximately US$55 million through a joint venture with affiliates of Beacon Capital Partners.

515 North State is a 29-storey, 654,000 ft² Class-A office tower located in River North, the most dynamic live/work/play submarket in downtown Chicago. Ideally situated within the strongest performing office submarket in the city, 515 North State is directly adjacent to numerous public transportation options as well as a broad array of shopping and dining destinations.

“515 North State is a premier River North office property that complements our existing downtown Chicago portfolio with Callahan, now totalling 2.1 million ft². Following a strong 2014, we are optimistic about the outlook for the Downtown Chicago office market as it continues to be one of our key, long term target markets.” noted Arthur Lloyd, Executive Vice President, Global Investments, Ivanhoé Cambridge.
